

Two hundred and fifty years after being forced from the heavens by war, climate change and societal collapse, Mankind is once again reaching for the stars. The Galilei Group, a consortium of the largest corporations on Earth, is spearheading Humanity's new space program—and someone wants it stopped.

Who—and why—are the questions that confront freelance investigator Logan Ramsey, covertly hired to look into a series of “accidents” that has plagued the effort. But as Logan digs deeper, crossing the globe in search of answers, every discovery she uncovers only leads to more questions. And as pioneers and saboteurs alike race for the abandoned space station Galileo, Logan comes face to face with a 250-year-old secret—a secret that threatens to plunge the human race into a final, apocalyptic war, on...
